

TR REGISTER EVENT – KVG, FRENCH TRIP TO ANGOULEME & CIRCUITS DES REMPARTS 9TH – 24TH SEPTEMBER 2017

We are organising a two-week trip next September to Angouleme in the south of France. Sat 9th – Sun 24th September, two days of this will/can be spent watching the Circuit des Remparts races at Angouleme. These consist of a fabulous day of racing round the streets of the medieval town, which is the only one of two street circuits remaining in Europe after Monaco. Ten different races are held for every age and type of car, including vintage Bugatti's – genuine £1m cars, racing wheel to wheel, plus everything else from muscle cars to Minis.

The rest of the time we will spend touring round the local countryside, we did it six years ago, and it was a great holiday. We stayed in an 18th Century Chateau, with seven rooms, or more if needed. Six of the rooms are en-suite, and the seventh has its own private bathroom. We have four cars going so far, but are looking for more.

The plan is to cross on the Friday overnight ferry from Portsmouth to Caen, arriving 7.30am. It is then 300 miles to the chateau, all on dual carriageway roads, with a stop for lunch. On the return we will spend a night next to Mont St Michel and the Normandy beaches. Or if you cannot spare the whole 14 days you can come back early.

Once there you can choose to do day trips, or just chill out beside the pool. Weather was good, being around 20 degrees most of the time and sunny, with occasional rain. Bordeaux and La Rochelle are one hour away, while there are beaches and fishing villages close by. The area is the Cognac region, with trips round the distilleries and on the river.

If you have never taken your TR abroad, you should do it. The people love our English sports cars, and welcome us every time we stop in the towns and villages, crowding round for photographs. The roads are very empty, so driving on the right is not a problem.

Approximate costs are: £900.00 for 14 nights in the Chateau, £400.00 ferry, and £100.00 for the last night hotel, plus petrol. Because it is self-catering, you have the option of cooking for yourself, or going out for meals, and we usually mix the two.
