TR Register News

Mike Brewer - Clubs had to tick of a long list of achievements to be in with a chance of this award. The judges looked at initiatives to bring in new members, stunning events, web presence and club magazines. In particular our winners, the TR Register enjoyed a string of successes in those areas plus events like the return to Jabekke with the speed record winning TR2 and putting TRs in front of millions at the British Grand Prix."

Patience is on the road - A lovely day out to Parham House. A snap shot of myself on the left, with Paul and Fiona. She has now covered 500 miles. Not Fiona, the car.. So a shake down period. No headaches, but a few minor issues to deal with. Namely, The hood has gone tight, so I'll need to adjust that. The bonnet pull cable and the heater pull cable have gone very tight. There might be a teardrop leak from the power steering and lastly the sun visors need to be moved to the outside a bit. When I used one of them, it knocked the drivers mirror off it's pedestal. I think I have resolved the power steering leak, but I will need to attend to the others soon. Then an oil and filter change and check the timing. Then get some more miles on her.

TR Register NEWS - TS2

With nearly 70,000 miles covered in 17 years with over 180 different members driving TS2, she is starting to show signs of interior wear and external corrosion.

- Option 1. Do nothing and just leave the car as it is (not recommended)
- Option 2. Enter talks with British Motor Heritage at Gaydon for the possibility of taking TS2 out of regular service and exhibiting it alongside the TR8 in the museum with the car being released for certain special events occasionally.
- Option 3. Do a complete rebuild costing around £50k
- Option 4. Use the car as it was intended for the next 2 years by entering the Mille Miglia, Round Britain Run and other events etc., etc. and then do a complete rebuild.
- Option 5. Sell the car (not recommended)

- Could TS2 be taken out of regular service to sit in here alongside the works rally TR8 of Tony Pond?

It's for the members to decide.
