The Inter-club Triumph Weekend 2019

The venue already plays host to a number of similar meets for classic car and caravan clubs throughout the year and is ideally situated within a short walk from the historic town centre. There will be many of the favourite features of the TR International Weekend, plus invited car clubs and guided tours of the city and surrounding countryside.

The weekend will also form the focal point for one of the many celebrations planned throughout the year for the anniversary of 50 years since the Triumph TR6 went on sale.

There is camping on site centre of the Racecourse or the Stratford Racecourse Touring Park with better facilities which is on the outside of the course or local B&B, why not try AirBnB to book, its good value.
