KVG - The History

- The Kennet Valley TR Group was originally founded and known as the Butt Inn TR Group (due to where they met in the village of Aldermaston) on the 4th November 1970, by Ian Avery, Bill Tognarelli and John Whicher.
- Two years later in March 1972, the name was changed to the Kennet Valley TR Group rather than being named after a pub. This proved a sensible move as in December 1974, due to a restaurant expansion at the Butt Inn, the Group had to quickly move to a new location.
- From the KVG members, other local Groups developed such as Devizes Group (now Glavon) Chiltern Group, and the Windsor Forest Group. During these many years, there have been seven Group Leaders: Ian Avery, Richard Owen, Stuart Sellwood, Mike Dorrill, Norman Derby, Richard Roberts and currently Phil Horsley.

‘No Where is far in a TR! 2019’

• Lacock Village - Drive & Eat

Kennet Valley TR Group enjoyed their last run of 2019 which was to Lacock Village. The village is owned almost in its entirety by the National Trust and attracts many visitors by virtue of its unspoiled appearance.

Arranged by Denis & Val Carter, 7 KVG cars (no TR's as they were all tucked up in their warm garages) that met at Tot Hill services (A34), and took the Tulip Run (John & Jackie Edmonds) which ambled through Ball Hill, Kintbury, Sanham Green, Burbage, Pewsey, Alton Barnes and finally to Lacock.

Successful Events 2010

The KVG cars went visiting

- Thatcham Lakes Walk
  - 3 walkers and a dog
